The Charter of The Alliance Against Lenny and Similar Disinformation Agents, AALSDA.

This charter is to establish the framework and principles of The Alliance Against Lenny and Similar Disinformation Agents, hereinafter referred to as “the Alliance.” The Alliance is a coalition dedicated to combating misinformation, confusion, deceptive practices, and “Soyjak” activity. By formalizing our mission, objectives, and beliefs into this one document, we aim to unite individuals and organizations that share commonality with the Alliance. May God help us in the pursuit of truth, transparency, and accountability in communication.

Article I – Name

The name of this organization shall be “The Alliance Against Lenny and Similar Disinformation Agents;” as mentioned earlier, referred to as “the Alliance” in this document. The Alliance is formed to unite individuals and organizations dedicated to combating misinformation, confusing, deceptive practices, and “Soyjak” activity. The name reflects not only our past successful campaign involving Lenny, but also the broader challenge of combating similar entities.

Article II – Mission

The Alliance is dedicated to combating misinformation, confusion, and deceptive practices in all forms, with a particular focus on entities that exhibit behavior similar to that of Lenny, “Soyjak” activity.

Article III – Objectives

The Alliance’s objectives are as follows:

1. To identify and expose instances of misinformation, disinformation, and “Soyjak” activity; hereinafter referred to as “the Dangers.”
2. To educate the inhabitants of Polar Express 2 and akin about the Dangers and the importance of critical thinking.
3. To advocate for policies and practices that promote transparency and accuracy in communication.
4. To collaborate with other organizations and individuals that share our mission and values.

Article IV – Membership

Membership in the Alliance is open to individuals and organizations that support its mission and objectives. Members are expected to adhere to the principles of honesty, integrity, and respect for differing viewpoints.

Article V – Governance

The Alliance shall be governed by Maximilien Trolliver and Alfred Murrah (“the Board”), who shall serve indefinitely. The Board shall be responsible for setting the strategic direction of the Alliance, overseeing its operations, and ensuring its sustainability.

Article VI – Meetings

The Alliance shall hold an annual meeting with the Board, review the organization's activities, and discuss plans for the future. Additional meetings may be called as needed by the Board or at the request of a majority of the membership.

Article VII – Funding

The Alliance shall be funded through donations, grants, and other sources of revenue. The Board shall be responsible for overseeing the Alliance's finances and ensuring that funds are used in accordance with its mission and objectives.

Article VIII – Amendments

This charter may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the membership. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Board at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting, and must be approved by the Board before being presented to the membership for a vote.

Article IX – Dissolution

In the event that the Alliance is dissolved, any remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more charitable organizations that share its mission and objectives, as determined by the Board.

All-in-all, this charter establishes The Alliance Against Lenny and Similar Disinformation Agents as a beacon of truth, transparency, and accountability in the face of misinformation and “Soyjak” activity. We pledge to uphold the highest standards of integrity and honesty in our pursuit of a more informed and enlightened society. May our efforts serve as a testament to the power of unity and determination in the fight against deception and confusion.
